

MAYOR ISSUES A PROCLAMATION

Urging Kingston Folks to Cooperate in the National Movement to Conserve the Food Supply—Prevent the Misuse and Misapplication of Food—Mix Profit With Patriotism.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.
Kingston, N. Y., October 30, 1917.
Citizens of Kingston:

This is the week of the National Campaign for Family Enrollment for Food Conservation. The committee in charge of the campaign in this county headed by Hon. John G. Van Etten, have worked earnestly and assiduously to make it the success it deserves to be.

This effort of our government is a very important one and will mean much if the people will heed the call of their country in this matter. The head of each family is requested to enroll and thereby promise to participate in this movement.

It is expected of you, Mr. Family-man and Mrs. Familywoman, that you will stop up all holes in the food store of your family. It is expected that you will waste no food. It is expected that you will not squander food lavishly no more than you would uselessly destroy any munitions of our army if part of same was in your charge and custody. Food is munition. The more food we can send to our allies, and the better their soldiers are fed, the better they will be for our morale, and the better they will fight. Looking at it from a selfish standpoint, remember, the better they fight, the less fighting our boys will be compelled to do.

Therefore, you are requested to cooperate in this movement. Enroll, if you have not done so. Prevent the misuse and misapplication of food. Use with a sparing hand all food that may be sent across to Europe such as wheat. It is not asked that you stint or pinch yourself in the use of food, but to conserve the food and minimize our proneness to wastefulness which results in a loss with no compensation.

Mix profit with patriotism. Render this service to your country and to yourselves. Enroll and cooperate. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this day above written in the year nineteen hundred and seventeen.

PALMER CANFIELD, JR., Mayor.

S. S. CONVENTION CONVENED TODAY

In Trinity M. E. Church—This Evening the Rev. Putnam Cady Will Deliver Illustrated Lecture.

The fifty-sixth annual convention of the Ulster County Sunday School Association convened this afternoon in Trinity M. E. Church and will remain in session Wednesday. This evening the Rev. Putnam Cady, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will deliver an illustrated lecture on "A Journey to Babylon." The general public is invited to attend the lecture, as well as all of the sessions of the convention. Dr. Cady's lectures are always interesting. Because of extensive travel he is able to give the personal touch which both greatly enhances and emphasizes his message.

The convention opened this afternoon with a song service in charge of the Rev. G. H. Scudder of Highland. The address of welcome was made by the Rev. P. C. Weyant, pastor of the entertaining church, and the response by the Rev. Dr. C. G. Ellis, president of the association. Two interesting addresses marked this afternoon's session, one by the Rev. T. F. Bayles of Walden and the other by A. L. Adertin of Albany.

Wednesday's Sessions. Wednesday's session will start this morning at 9:30 with an address by the Rev. Joseph E. Appleby of Ellenville, followed by discussion in regard to Sunday school methods. The fourth and last session will be held this afternoon starting at 1:30 o'clock. "How We Can Improve Our Sunday Schools" will be the subject of an address by the Rev. W. H. Boock, director of religious education, First Presbyterian Church of Buffalo, and at 3 o'clock an address on "The Young Man and the Bible" will be given by the Rev. J. Fred Berg of Brooklyn.

First Time He Was Arrested. Stephen Buboltz, 35 years old, experienced his first night in jail Monday when he was picked up on Hasbrouck avenue, near Mill street, on a charge of public intoxication. The arrest was made by Officer Boyd. This morning Stephen was sober and in answer to questions of Recorder Lang stated he had never been arrested before and was married and had four children. He has a steady job on a local boatyard and taking these facts into consideration the court gave Stephen another chance warning him that the next offence would mean a jail sentence.

To Hold a Dance. William Coubell, No. 176, will hold a dance on Saturday evening, November 3, in Mannerbach Hall.

FIRST U. S. SOLDIER WOUNDED IN FRANCE

By Telegram to The Freeman. American Headquarters in France, Oct. 30.—An American Lieutenant attached to the Signal Corps is the first American soldier fighting with the expeditionary force to be wounded in France.

He was struck in the leg by a shell splinter while working in a communication trench near the first line. He was taken to the field hospital where it was stated his wound was not serious.

SNYDER FAVORS ENGLISH SERVICE

The Rev. H. E. Snyder, a Former City Pastor, Denounces Opponents of English Service as Enemies at Lutheran Council.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—Opponents of the movement to substitute English in the Lutheran churches of American in place of German, Swedish, Norwegian and Danish were denounced as enemies of the United States at the convention of the General Council of the Lutheran Church here Monday.

The Rev. Howard E. Snyder, a Lutheran pastor now officiating at the University of Wisconsin, said that "any section of the Lutheran church that works against the effort to establish English services works against America."

In presenting the principles of the movement, Dr. Snyder explained it as part of a well defined propaganda to establish "Americanized Lutheranism" through the medium of the universities.

The Rev. Mr. Snyder is a former pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Wurts street.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY AT EDDYVILLE

Final arrangements have been made for the big Halloween affair to be given at Cornell Inn on Wednesday evening, October 31, by the Red Cross Auxiliary. Prizes will be offered for the prettiest and the most comical costumes worn during the evening. The Eddyville Band has kindly offered to be present and will render some of their very fine selections. Allen and Pardee have been very generous in donating their services for the dancing. If you wish to know what the future holds in store for you just consult Madame Searliff. Some of the finest cooks in the village have volunteered to prepare late refreshments, which will consist of clam chowder, cake and coffee. We presume you have heard of the fame of the ladies of Eddyville, but it is not to be present Wednesday evening and decide for yourself. Admission, 25 cents. If stormy, the next fair evening.

GETTING READY FOR WINTER

That Company M expects to spend the winter in camp at Spartanburg, South Carolina, is shown by a personal letter written by Lieutenant R. C. Dittus to a friend in Kingston in which he states that he has purchased enough lumber to build up his tent with a skeleton woodwork. All sides will be wood with a glass panel door, and only the top will be of canvas. He has also an electric heater coming to heat the shack. That of course means an outlay of money, he writes, but it is worth it to keep warm this winter, which no doubt will be enjoyed at Camp Wadsworth. He also writes that weather conditions are much different in the south where Company M is than one would be led to expect and that it is cold enough nights to "freeze one to his chin."

Bishop Hughes Will Speak.

On Wednesday evening Bishop Hughes of Boston, Mass., will be the speaker in St. James' Methodist Episcopal Church. The bishop is one of the most attractive and forceful preachers in the Methodist Church or in any denomination. He will bring a religious message that will be uplifting and inspiring. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this service on Wednesday.

Weather Was Warm And Wet.

This morning at 8 o'clock thermometers downtown registered 65 degrees. While the temperature was agreeable the heavy downpour of rain kept the streets free of pedestrians, only those whose business made it necessary being out.

GERMAN PRIVATES WEARY OF WAR

German Captured by Americans Dies of Wounds—Shots Fired by Polish-Americans—He Was Only 19 Years Old.

By Telegram to The Freeman. American Field Headquarters in France, Oct. 30.—The big majority of the German army—the privates—are weary of war and yearn for peace. The officers, getting good salaries and able to keep out of the first line trenches, do not care how long the war lasts.

These statements were made by the expeditionary force's German prisoner just before he died from the wound he received when he failed to halt at an American patrol's command. The prisoner, who was barely 19 years old, was called to the colors a year ago and had been fighting in the first line trenches in this sector most of the time since.

The German expressed the greatest surprise that he had been taken prisoner by Americans. He said that he had heard there were a few American soldiers in France but did not dream they were on the fighting line. The officers, he said, never imparted such information to the men.

Asked about conditions in the interior of Germany, the prisoner smiled wily and said he was sorry, but he didn't know.

"It has been nine months since I have heard from my folks at home," he told the Americans.

He added that the military authorities had cut off all communication between the men in the trenches and the "Folks back home."

The German was acting as a mail carrier when he was captured. He said he had started for some distant trenches. He was unfamiliar with the trench system in that sector and found himself out in No Man's Land.

The Americans who were out on a scouting expedition in front of their own barbed wire defenses suddenly doomed ahead. They spotted the German at the same moment he saw them. The American command to halt rang out but the German started to run. The two Polish-Americans, one from Chicago and the other from Milwaukee, who got credit for the capture, both fired and the German dropped without a cry.

Several Americans rushed forward and picked the wounded man up. He was rushed at once to an American field hospital not far behind the lines. He was conscious but very weak. One bullet had shattered his left arm and the other had pierced his abdomen. A young American surgeon, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and formerly a surgeon at the Philadelphia general hospital, operated on the prisoner, displaying the same professional interest in saving his life that he would if handling a wealthy patient.

"If he had only not gotten the wound in the abdomen he would have recovered," the young surgeon said. "He was a very nifty little chap. While he was being operated on he looked around and watched everything very calmly although he must have been suffering agonies."

The company that captured the German also won nearly all the divisional trophy cups at the recent field meet. Naturally the members are quite cocky today.

LAYMEN INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

The Kingston Laymen's Association held an important meeting Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. at which time the following officers were installed: President, Charles Ramsey; vice president, James E. Van Keuren; recording secretary and treasurer, Harry G. Smith; and corresponding secretary, Alfred Tongue. Plans for the winter work were also considered and arrangements were made to secure the Rev. Putnam Cady of the First Presbyterian Church to deliver lectures in the International Sunday School lessons. The boy problem, the liquor problem and other problems were also taken up and discussed.

No Decrease in Sales.

According to a local tobacco dealer, there has been practically no decrease in sales of tobacco and cigars because of the increase in prices of some, due to the war tax. "Our sales are just about normal," said this dealer, "and our customers take the situation good naturally." One brand of cigarettes still sells for five cents, but the manufacturers are packing only eight instead of ten to a package. There is a slip in the package stating that the company feels that their patrons would rather have the package changed from ten cigarettes to eight and still pay the same five cents than have the same number of cigarettes as usual, and pay six or seven cents for the package.

This Bloodhound Missing.

A bloodhound owned by the Sylvester Schaefer troupe which played recently at the Orpheum Theater is missing. The animal made his escape from a baggage car at the West Shore station. A reward of $10 has been offered for the return of the hound.

NO REAL SUGAR FAMINE HERE

Although the Stock of Sugar is Limited, There Has Been and is Still Enough to Go Around—Wholesalers Are Selling it at a Price That Gives Dealers a Normal Profit.

In an effort to get some reliable data relative to the alleged shortage of sugar in this city, a Freeman man today interviewed a prominent wholesale grocer here, and a number of retail grocers, and during these interviews the following facts were brought out.

Although the supply of sugar has been limited, and is still limited, there is no real shortage of sugar in Kingston. And with the right kind of management upon the part of the dealers selling sugar and the co-operation of local housewives, there will be no shortage of this staple commodity.

"The week before last we sold 100 barrels of sugar," said this wholesale dealer mentioned, "and last Thursday we disposed of 250 more barrels. 'We disposed of this sugar to the local dealers in quantities proportioned to the size of the dealers' stores and their number of customers. We instructed the dealers not to sell more than two or three pounds to each customer."

"This week we expect to have 100 more barrels of sugar for our trade, and after this lot, we will not have any more sugar for two or three weeks."

"However, there is no cause to feel any sugar famine, if the dealers and the housewives will work together in this matter. In about thirty days the beet sugar will be ready for sale, and this will relieve the situation very materially."

A Normal Profit.

This wholesale dealer in question stated that his firm had sold sugar to the dealers at an average price of 9.10 cents a pound and that the dealers had retailed it for 10 and 10½ cents a pound, thus making the average normal profit of about one cent a pound.

The main reason for the present situation in the sugar market, according to this wholesaler, is the large quantity of sugar that is being exported.

"However, 50,000 tons of sugar that was being held in warehouses has recently been released," said this wholesaler merchant, "and this will make a big difference."

"Another factor that will help is the purchase by the American Sugar Refining Company of 100,000 barrels of sugar."

A Novel Selling Plan.

Two or three dealers around town have been trying out a stunt, that from all accounts is not proving very popular with the patrons of these stores.

These dealers in question have been selling their customers two pounds of sugar on condition that they buy two dollars' worth of groceries.

To Release More Sugar.

After three weeks of negotiations the United States Food Administration obtained the release Saturday of 28,000 tons of refined sugar that had been held in New York city for shipment to foreign countries.

Negotiations are now under way for the release of 16,500 tons of the same supply. An additional 3,750 tons were released earlier in the week, making a total tonnage of 26,750 pounds at the metropolitan market.

SAUGERTIES MAN SHOT IN HEAD

Frank Keenan of Saugerties lies in the Catskill hospital in a serious condition as the result of a hunting accident near Cairo on Sunday. His skull was fractured with a charge of shot fired from the gun of his companion, Frank Simmons. From what could be learned they were out hunting rabbits and in the excitement Keenan got in line with the gun held by Simmons and the charge fired at the rabbit hit him.

Annual Supper and Fair.

Each year the ladies of the Wurts Street Baptist Church seem to out do themselves in the preparing and serving of delicious chicken pie suppers. This year will be no exception and all who attend on Wednesday evening of this week will be more than satisfied with the menu that is being prepared. Supper will be served in the chapel from 5 to 7 o'clock, followed by a sale of fancy and domestic articles, home made candy, etc.

Oil Tanks Exempt.

Justice Morschauer in a special term of the supreme court at Poughkeepsie, decided that the assessment against the Standard Oil Company on gas tanks under sidewalks in front of garages and drug stores in Poughkeepsie must be stricken from the assessment roll, as they were not subject to tax.

To Do Their Bit.

Poughkeepsie's first contingent of drafted men made up exclusively of colored men will leave that city for Camp Upton Tuesday morning. Plans have been perfected to give the men a proper send-off.

OTHER SPECIAL RIGHTS OF WOMEN

Lawyer Klein Calls Attention to Additional Privileges That New York State Women Enjoy.

Kingston, N. Y., Oct. 29, 1917. To the Editor of the Kingston Daily Freeman, Kingston, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—On going through the summary of the laws printed in your editorial entitled "The Rights of Women," which appeared in the issue of your paper of the 25th inst., I find three omissions, and in order that your readers may become aware of the fact that the rights of women are fully safeguarded in this state, I have taken the liberty of adding some paragraphs to the summary printed by you.

First—If the husband sues the wife for a divorce or a separation, he not only has to pay his own lawyer, but he also has to pay the fee of her lawyer, and has to pay her alimony while the action is pending, so that even if the fault is hers she is not obliged to pay anything, but the husband is compelled to pay the expenses of both sides.

Second—The law of this state provides that a woman shall have the same exemptions as a man, that is, certain personal property, such as furniture, etc., owned by her, when she is a house holder or contributes to the support of a family, may not be taken in satisfaction of a debt contracted by her.

Third—Our law provides that an execution cannot be issued against the person of a woman except under special circumstances, such as in cases where she is guilty of contempt of court or is likely to leave the jurisdiction of the court and defeat a remedy granted in favor of the other party, or in a case where an action is brought against her to recover damages for a willful injury to person, character or property; so that if a man should for instance while traveling in his automobile, negligently collide with somebody and injure him, and a judgment is obtained against him for damages, he would be subject to arrest on an execution against his person if he fails to pay the judgment, whereas a woman under the same circumstances would not be subject to arrest.

Thanking you for the use of your columns for the purpose of adding to the summary of the law on this subject, I remain,

Yours very truly,
HENRY KLEIN.

ATTEMPTS MURDER AT TANNERSVILLE

Michael Lackey, Jr., one of the most widely known residents of Greene county, lies in a critical condition at his home in Tannersville, the victim of an unknown assassin, who entered the Lackey home sometime Saturday evening. Mr. Lackey was seated in the dining room of his home alone when he was shot from the rear. The assailant fired three shots, two taking effect, and then made his escape under cover of darkness. The would-be murderer is thought to be a New York gunman. Mr. Lackey has been a deputy sheriff for thirty years.

THE JOINERS.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies.

The following lodges hold regular meetings this evening:

C. S. Clay Lodge, No. 528, I. O. O. F., in Pythian Hall, corner of Wall and John streets.

Kingston Lodge, No. 10, F. and A. M., in Masonic Hall, Wall street.

Vanderlyn Council, No. 41, Daughters of America, will entertain members and friends with a card party this evening at the lodge rooms, Mechanics' Hall, 14 Henry street. All members and friends are invited to attend.

At its meeting last Tuesday evening C. S. Clay Lodge, No. 528, I. O. O. F., selected a chairman to conduct an entertainment to be staged this fall. This will be the second annual entertainment. H. B. Cornelius has been chosen to direct the show. The minstrel of last year is still fresh in the minds of the ones who attended it. This one under the supervision of Mr. Cornelius will be far superior. Mr. Cornelius is in touch with all the great show managers and he promised to put forth one of the greatest events ever staged by any organization. The date and nature of the entertainment has not yet been decided upon, but no one should fail to see the entertainment. A large attendance is expected this evening as the chairman needs the help of every one.

Is Still Coming.

Rain to the right, rain to the left, and then more rain. Is the weather man's offering the last two or three days. For some little time before this latest offering the farmers were hoping for rain for the crops and it looks now as if these hopes were going to be fulfilled with a vengeance. There was a cold wind with the rain today and pedestrians were stepping lively to keep warm. More than one umbrella turned inside out during the day, tempting folks who are usually more or less sweet tempered to forget their peace and dignity.

CAMP DIX MAY EXCLUDE VISITORS

Hardships on Soldiers and Their Friends Because of Riff-Raff Visitors—Winter Uniforms Supplied to the Men—The Fool and the Bottle.

Co. F, 303rd Engrs., Camp Dix, N. J., Saturday, October 27.—Today we were all equipped with winter uniforms and all those who had no dress shoes, including myself, were given a pair. If I had been sure of getting my outfit, I would have gone over to New York, but I did not know about it in time. In order to leave the reservation, that is the five mile limit, you must be signed up for by Friday. I don't want to get too much time off, so I don't ask for one but preferred to wait until such time as I was sure I could use it. I have been down here four weeks now and have not been outside of camp except while on duty (hikes) or to walk down to Wrightstown a few times.

Capt. Judge said that perhaps within a short time all visitors would be barred from camp. That is women. It is becoming overrun with the usual camp followers such as were on the border, and in order to at least try and keep the reservation clean, women will be barred. If your folks come down from home you will have to arrange to meet them at Wrightstown or some such place. Soldiers will be allowed to go at any time to meet their folks. This order has not yet gone into effect but probably will in a short time. It is a case where the innocent must suffer with the guilty.

This morning we hiked to Julietstown and around the block home. Got back just in time to get ready for inspection. A lot of the fellows got K. P. or extra duty for having unshined shoes, a button off or not being shaved.

It is warm here today and we all sweat a bit on the hike. Of course some boob spoiled the morning. A fellow who is known as "Ogdensburg," because he came from there and keeps talking about it and telling how he is going home soon when he gets exempt. Well, "Og" got acting smart at our first rest stop 50 minutes walk and started juggling a pop bottle. The neck broke off and the bottle flew through the air and hit or "threw" his stander" on the head, inflicting a deep gash. He was bleeding pretty freely and we were three miles from camp so an auto (Ford) was stopped and he was conveyed home. He is O. K. after being fixed up at the hospital.

We picked up a dog on the way and brought it along for several miles and then lost it. The boys wanted to bring it back for a mascot. One fellow named Snyder, who comes from about four miles from Homestead, near Springwater, the home town of Dr. Brewer, formerly of Kingston, and knows people in Springwater, carried the dog a ways but finally decided he had a contract to carry himself and let the dog go.

It is very warm today and reminds me of August. You seem to be getting more rain up there than we. I think there has been but three days since I came down to the engineers that rain prevented us from drilling. We have had some rainy nights and showers in the afternoon but few rainy days.

After inspection today we were all fitted out with winter woolen O. D. coats and pants, also dress shoes.

This afternoon there is an awkward squad out on duty. The first of the season, and there will probably be some more interest shown at drills after this.

The other night while I was on guard I walked through the lower squad room at 2:30 in the morning and say, snore—no they were all snoring. Just as I was wondering when they were going to knock off snoring and spit a while I heard someone sort of grunt turn over and mutter something and then sing out "I am going home."

I guess there are plenty here who would like to. I know I would like to see Kingston for a couple of days, but I think then I would be ready to come back here. Well, I am wondering. I have not finished my story. The fellow said he was going home and from down in another corner some guy answers back, "Like you are." It certainly was funny when every was so still except for the snoring. The fellow who answered was awake but the other was dreaming of the folks at home all right.

We just get feeling fine down here when they send us to the hospital and make us feel bum again. I just got over the aches from the second inoculation when they hauled us up and shot us the third time and vaccinated most of us again. I ached all over for a couple of days but was not sick. Some were. I got my dose the first time.

The inoculation is certainly interesting. They line us up, three or four hundred, and as fast as we come in one door we shove up our sleeve and an attendant paints a spot with iodine and we pass along to the doctor who shoots us. Several fill the needle while he shoots away as fast as he can. You see some funny sights. One brave fellow winks at the fellow behind him while another cowers, then white and just before he goes.

The pictures referred to are clippings from The Freeman showing the crowds that turned out to see Company M off on the trip to Camp Whitman in June, 1916. The pictures show that beneath remains good.

GOBLINS PRANCE ON HALLOWE'EN

Consult With the Fairies and Find Out the Name of Your Future Husband or Wife—Many Parties and Socials Will Be Held This Evening—Youngsters Will Have Usual Halloween Fun.

Halloween, the evening before Allhallow, or All Saint's Day, will be observed this evening, as usual with many dances, parties and socials.

For many years, as long as the oldest of us can remember, Halloween has had associated with it glimpses of the traditional fairyland; that mystic place where the goblins, elves, and the other inhabitants of the land of fancy and dreams, take realistic form on Halloween.

The young folks, and the old young folks still retain this characteristic spirit of Halloween; the one evening when cares can be forgotten and one can drift from the stern realities of life into the pleasing fancies of fairyland.

However, to the youngsters, there is nothing fairylke about door bells, gates, and windows, on Halloween, and these are usually the targets for the youngsters' stunts.

Kingston youngsters have the spirits characteristic of youth, but there is not much of the rowdy element here. It is expected that some Halloween fun will be indulged in by the youngsters tonight, some door bells rung, gates taken off, etc., but the police do not expect any serious trouble.

If some of the youngsters do carry their Halloween fun too far, they will promptly be taken care of by the bluecoats.

Many of the merchants around town have their show windows decorated with Halloween novelties.

Negresses Are Arraigned.

Anna Coles and Mary Hopkins, the two negroes charged with the murder of Joe Taylor, colored, who was stabbed at East Kingston a week ago Saturday night, were arraigned Monday before Justice of the Peace DeCicco at East Kingston and waived examination. They are charged with murder in the second degree. At the hearing Assistant District Attorney Hasbrouck appeared for the People. There was no appearance for the women.

Turkey Supper at Hurley.

A turkey supper will be served by the ladies of the Old Hurley Reformed Church at the church on Friday evening of this week. No community in New York state has been more famous than Old Hurley for its turkey suppers, whose toothsome always draws a large crowd from Kingston.

sweat. One fellow fainted before he even got the shot. I am used to it and did not mind the last two a bit. I got a vaccination to boot the last time but I'll bet it don't work, the first did not.

The piano has got the cook's goat. At last we can get even with him. The fellows take turns at playing it, just to get his goat. He threatened to throw hot water over a fellow the other day. But he told the cook it was his own fault. He cut us short on the food to save money and we took the money and bought a piano. If he had given us more to eat we could not have bought the piano. Oh, he is some popular cook all right.

We carried more sewer pipe yesterday, dug a trench about 75 feet long, graded the front yard and laid down wooden sidewalks around the building.

We are now drilling with the old 1598 Krag rifles but are to get Winchester of our own very soon. The auto trucks were hauling the guns all yesterday from the store houses, and I suppose we will soon get them. Then our joys begin every Saturday at inspection.

A couple of fellows went home to Newburgh this morning and I am going to see how they make the trip and see if it pays to come up on a pass. I think I had better come soon if I want to come at all.

Say, those picture you sent sure were good. Little did I think last summer when the boys marched away to Camp Whitman, that I would be wearing the olive drab myself in about a year. And when I snapped that picture of the crowd at the ferry when Co. M "went across" I little dreamed that a crowd many times as large would witness the departure of a body of which I was to be a part. Things sure do happen pretty swift. Just think—that was the departure of troops for another war. Pershing's men settled that war and are about to engage in another which they will also undoubtedly settle.

You ought to see Wrightstown today. It is twice as large as when you were down and growing every minute. I think I will go and take a walk and get my hair cut. I have walked 19 or 12 miles already today but must make 5 or 6 more or I won't sleep well tonight.

SOLDIERS GRATEFUL FOR GIFTS OF JELLY

The two following letters of thanks and appreciation on receipt of jelly sent through the Ulster County Chapter of the Red Cross, to our men at the two cantonments, have been received and belong to the entire public of the county which had any part in contributing to the same:

Camp Dix, New Jersey.

Oct. 23, 1917.
Ulster County Red Cross,
576 Broadway,
Kingston, N. Y.

Your kind letter of the 11th instant reached me in due time but it was most unfortunate that military matters must first be cared for before the company personal business. However, my delay in answering was not entirely caused by the great amount of work we are called upon to do, but like everything else here the Express Company held up your shipment of jelly to our boys and I waited until I knew for certain that the shipment had been completed.

We have received to date the entire nine cases of jelly and all in perfect condition and am returning to you at the earliest possible time, the empty jelly tumblers. As yet the boys have not eaten all the jelly and it might interest you to know how we handle the same. When we receive such a gift, it is immediately charged to the mess sergeant and he is held responsible by me to see that the distribution of the same is so that every man shares alike. We had warm biscuits to serve with the jelly and it would have done your heart good to see that first Christmas tree expression come over those boys' faces again.

Personally, I cannot tell you how much your kindness is appreciated by me on behalf of our boys, yours and mine. Let me say that you are bringing HOME very near to us and at present a delicacy such as you sent us never meant more to a hungry and homesick boy.

With heartfelt thanks and kind regards to all those to whom we are so indebted, I remain

Truly yours,

LEE W. CARD,
Captain 300th Inf.,
Commanding Company L.

Company M, 10th N. Y. Inf.,
Camp Wadsworth, S. C.,
Oct. 23, 1917.

Ulster County Chapter,
American Red Cross,
Kingston, N. Y.

I hasten to express to you, on the part of the men of this company, our many thanks for the cases of jam which were received yesterday. I assure you that the men appreciate this manifestation of the interest that the people of Ulster county take in their welfare and that, through your kindness they have been brought to a better understanding of the purpose and aims of the Red Cross Association.

Yours very truly,

A Word About Comfort

"SOCONY!"

What you get out of your car depends to a large extent upon what you put into it.

Just as a matter affecting your own comfort it pays to get only the best gasoline — SOCONY.

There is no gasoline more highly refined or more powerful than SOCONY. And it is the only gasoline which is always the same, wherever you buy it. That means a welcome freedom from faulty carburetion.

Look for the Red, White and Blue SOCONY Sign. It insures you more miles to the gallon and more power to the mile.

TAX ON PHONE MESSAGES

The war revenue tax of 5 cents on certain telephone messages becomes effective November 1, 1917, and R. D. Clearwater, local manager, said today that plans for collecting this tax had been completed by the New York Telephone Company.

The new law levies a tax of 5 cents on each message for which the charge is 15 cents or more. The law directs that this tax shall be collected from the person paying for the message and places the responsibility for its collection upon the telephone company. This tax must be paid in addition to the regular charge for the call.

The law applies not only to all messages on which the initial rate is 15 cents or more per message, but also to all messages on which the total charge, including overtime, amounts to 15 cents or more. Thus, while a call at the initial rate of 5 cents or 10 cents bears no tax, should the conversation be prolonged over a period which would make the aggregate charge 15 cents or more, it would be subject to a 5 cents tax.

As in the period from December 1, 1914, to September 8, 1916, when a war tax of 1 cent was imposed by the government on certain messages, the telephone company will bill subscribers each month for the tax on their messages. The toll service statements accompanying monthly bills will show the messages on which the tax is levied, the total number of such messages and the amount of the tax in addition to the regular charges for toll calls. On calls from coin box stations on which the tax is levied the total charges quoted by the operators will include the 5 cent tax and the tax will be collected in the regular manner along with the other charges.

Reformation Anniversary.

Tomorrow, October 31, marks the 400th anniversary of the Reformation. The Reformation dates from the time Luther nailed the ninety-five theses on the church door at Wittenberg, October 31, 1517. A proclamation by the joint Luther committee on the celebration of the quadricentennial of the Reformation has been issued, requesting that on Wednesday, October 31, 1917, beginning at noon and continuing for five minutes the Lutheran Churches in the United States and Canada cause their bells to be rung as a fitting recognition of the hour four hundred years ago that prepared the way for civil and religious liberty. A similar request is being made by the proper authorities of all the Protestant Churches.

BILLION DOLLARS LOST

One-half of the money produced in the United States is not saved for fertilizer, according to a statement of Carl Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture. When this loss is figured on the same price basis as commercial fertilizing materials it amounts to approximately one billion dollars annually.

SUITABLE AS A CLOD CRUSHER

Not Only Does Machine Perform Duty for Which It Was Intended, But Also Cuts Scrubs.

This is a machine, a simple one at that, that will perform double duty for the farmer. Not only does it crush the clods, a purpose for which it originally was invented, but the inventor has attached a scrub-cutting device, so that the two operations are simultaneous. Also the rear half of the cutter can be folded up and latched on top of the crusher so that only the latter is working where there is no scrub to be cut. The cutting operation is performed by a number of scraper knives attached to the sides and rear of the framework, so that no naughty scrub escapes.—Farming Business.

ADVANTAGES IN MULES

Have Faculty of Adapting Themselves to Any Condition.

Superiority They Hold Over Horses in Many Ways Compensate for Objectionable Length of Ear and Kicking Habit.

Those who are accustomed to handling mules and who know of their remarkable faculty of adapting themselves to almost any condition, realize their value and do not hesitate to pay well for good animals.

The advantages they possess over horses in many ways compensate for the somewhat objectionable length of ear and exaggerated reputation for kicking. They are ready to work when two years old and on account of their toughness and steadiness of nerve may be kept at it twice as long as horses are fit for service. Mules can be raised more cheaply than any other stock, and, unlike horses, will never founder themselves if by chance they should have access to more feed than is good for them. They can be put into the market much sooner than horses, and if properly handled, when two years old, will do as much work and stand it better, than four-year-old colts. Mules are less liable to contract diseases than horses, and their value is not decreased by blemishes as is that of horses. Mules seldom run away, but when they do they seem to run more from sport than fright and generally wind up safely. They do not actively avoid holes, obstacles or deep places. They can stand heat, abuse or hardship better than horses and can always be relied upon. They are sensitive as well as sensible animals, responding quickly to kind treatment by docility and gentleness.

The great profit in mule raising lies largely in their growth. Mules grow so quickly that they are marketable when three years old, while horse colts cannot advantageously be sold under five years. In this way the cost of feeding and the trouble and risk of raising are decreased.

Buyers will always handle good mules, as the demand for them is steady. Where large numbers of mules are raised there are always plenty of mule buyers in that section of the country. Buyers do not go where there are no mules to sell. In time of war mules are always in great demand and bring good prices owing to their powers of endurance.

Comparing cattle with mules, one steer will eat as much as two mules. As compared with swine, if the same amount of feed that is fed to a bunch of hogs is fed to mules it will not take long to find which makes the most money, aside from the fact that there is no risk from cholera.

ONIONS PLANTED IN AUTUMN

Multiplier Can Be Grown From Sets and Will Produce Excellent Early Vegetables.

There are several kinds of onions that may remain in the soil over winter. The multiplier, or potato onion, for example, can be planted from sets in the autumn and will produce excellent green early onions. A large onion of this type contains a number of distinct hearts, and if planted will produce a number of small onions. On the other hand, a small onion contains but one heart and will produce a large onion. A few of the large ones may be planted to produce sets for the following year's planting.

KEEP CHOLERA OUT OF HERD

First Thing to Do Is to Keep Hogs Clean—Keep Them Out of Wallow Holes and Dirty Places.

If you want to keep cholera out of your herd the first thing to do is to keep the hogs clean. Keep them out of wallow holes or filthy places and see that they have clean beds. Do not let the sows that are going to farrow run with the rest of the hogs. Keep lime water where the hogs can get a drink of it once a day but they should not be made to quench their thirst on this. Give a tablespoonful of oil cake for each once a day in top or soft feed.

DELAY ON TRAIL

By B. H. BAILEY.

No. 6 was late. That was an unusual happening on the D. & H. railroad and the division superintendent, standing on the little platform at Hoopeston, waiting to take No. 6 back to his headquarters, was plainly annoyed.

Superintendent Wheeler was not a quick tempered man, but as he walked up and down the Hoopeston platform glancing at his watch from time to time, anyone with half an eye could have seen that he was not in an angelic frame of mind. Inside the office the telegraph was ticking merrily with more "railroad business" and at length Superintendent Wheeler thrust his head in the door for the tenth time and asked:

"Anything new from No. 6?"

"She's thirty-five minutes late at Alton, sir," replied Operator Ryan briskly. "They've made up eight minutes time, sir."

"Have you yet heard what's the matter?" asked the division superintendent brusquely.

"Don't know for sure, sir, but I guess it's a hot box," said Ryan, and the superintendent continued his nervous walk up and down the platform.

Twenty-three miles away No. 6 was whooping over the shining rails like a vestibule limited, although it was only a "combination freight," lately invested with the dignity of a badly frayed passenger coach tagging on behind the heavy box cars for the few passengers, who desired the accommodation of a "way" train. But tonight No. 6 was running on freight schedule. She was more than 40 minutes late and as Joe Kelly looked from his perch beside the lever and saw his companion shoveling coal into the capacious maw of the engine, he encouraged him to redoubled efforts.

"That's the stuff, Jack," he said, "toss her in and we'll make up a bunch of it anyhow."

He got thus far in his chat and Jack was grunting assent from his dusty place among the lumps of coal when the engineer suddenly stood upright and leaned half-way out of the cab window. Then with a convulsive movement he threw the lever clear over and shut off the steam. An instant later the sharp bark of the whistle calling for "brakes" awoke the echoes.

"What's the matter," demanded the fireman, springing up to his side of the cab, half ready to jump.

"I don't know," said Kelly, peering into the half gloom ahead of the train, "but if someone isn't swinging a red light across the track down there, I'm a goat."

"Right you are," said the fireman. "That's a red one all right. Will we make it?"

"Oh, yes; we'll stop before we get there," said Kelly, confidently. "Wonder what it is, rail broken or a hold-up?" The conductor, who had been alarmed by the whistle for brakes and the grinding of the iron shoes against the wheels, came running over the tops of the freight cars and clambered over into the cab.

"What is it?" he demanded.

"Don't know," said Kelly, "take a peek yourself. Red light ahead."

The train had begun to slacken speed by that time and was fast approaching the slowly swinging lantern. At last it thundered to a stop and stood panting while the conductor sprang off and ran ahead. There stood a youth not more than twenty-years old, dozingly swinging a lantern while a frightened girl of seventeen clung to his arm and looked with wide eyes on everything.

"What's the matter here?" demanded the conductor. "What are you flagging this train for?"

"We want to get aboard," said the young man stoutly.

"What?" shrieked the conductor, "do you mean to say you've stopped a way freight that's forty minutes late just because you can't wait for the passenger that comes through at ten o'clock?"

"That's just it, sir," said the young man with much dignity, "we can't wait for the passenger. We want to go on this train. You see, the fact is," he went on growing confidential and taking a tighter hold on the little arm hanging in his, "we're going to town to get married."

"Oh, ho," interrupted the conductor, "an elopement, eh? Well, I'm darned if I don't like your nerve. Come on, get aboard then. Don't delay us any more than you have."

Five minutes later No. 6 was tearing over the rails toward Hoopeston with a pair of turtle doves nestling in a couplet seat in the passenger coach. Superintendent Wheeler had his speech all ready when the train slowed up at Hoopeston. The conductor swung off and touched his hat.

"Hot box at Penway Junction, sir," he explained. "We've made up fourteen minutes."

"What was that other stop for, reported by the operator at High Ridge?" demanded the superintendent. "Weren't you late enough without stopping for passengers?"

"Elopement, sir," explained the conductor.

"What!" thundered the superintendent, but when the conductor took him to the door of the coach and in a whisper explained the case and pointed out the blissful lovers, the division superintendent hummed and hawed and rubbed his chin and rubbed his eyes and no member of that train was laid off.

AIR-TIGHT SILO FOUND BEST

Slilage Will Keep Indefinitely if Air Can Be Excluded—Cover With Chopped Hay or Straw.

Practically all the trouble from spoiling of silage comes from the action of air on the material after the first necessary fermentation is over. The first fermentation or "heating" of the green material uses up all the oxygen of the air which is present in it when it is packed into the silo. If no more air can get in, no further fermentation or decay can possibly take place. If the silo is air-tight, therefore, silage will keep indefinitely. Of course, most silos are open at the top and some spoilage will take place from the top of the mass downwards. But this can be prevented, in large part, by covering the silage, after it has finished settling, with a layer of chopped hay or straw well wetted down.

GOOD MIXTURE FOR THE CALF

Something Must Be Given to Replace Butterfat When Skim Milk Is Substituted for Whole Milk.

When skim milk is substituted for whole milk in feeding the calf, something needs to be added to replace the butterfat removed in the cream. Corn can be used to good advantage. It is better cracked than ground fine. Bran is good and ground oats are splendid. A mixture is better than just one of them. The calf will begin to eat feed when two to three weeks old, and should have access to it. The best way to feed grain is dry and care should be taken not to allow any of it to remain in the corners of the feeding box, as it will sour and may cause digestive troubles. Boiled ground fax seed is also used with skim milk to make up for the fat removed.

POOR CULTIVATION OF CORN

Reason Given for Low Yields in Corn-Belt States—Hired Men Have Forgotten Hoe.

In the corn-belt states, where one might expect the largest yields, they are in many cases very low. The reason for this is largely poor cultivation; too many men try to get over about twice as much as they can handle profitably. The average hired man in the corn belt has forgotten how to run a hoe handle, and but little effort is made to get the weeds out of the hills in many cases. Better cultivation is a vital need in corn raising.

CARE FOR STRAWBERRY BEDS

Good Plan to Renew as Soon as Fruit Is Picked—Hoe Out All the Weak Plants.

As soon as the strawberries are picked, if the bed is clean and the plants thrifty, it is a good plan to renew the bed. Mow the tops and rake them off, then hoe out all old weak plants and thin to a row of strong, vigorous new plants, not nearer than ten inches apart. Cultivate the rest of the season.

COOKED TOMATOES FOR HOGS

Where There Is an Excess Amount of Vegetable They May Be Prepared and Fed to Swine.

On farms where there is an excess of tomatoes, the surplus may be cooked and fed to hogs. The hogs would not eat the green tomatoes unless cooked. That which is not needed for immediate use is stored away in air-tight barrels for future use. The top layer decays, but that beneath remains good.

KINGSTON, N. Y., OCT. 30, 1917.

The latest argument ever put forth in favor of woman suffrage is that women pay taxes and so should have a chance to vote how the money shall be spent. If there were anything in this contention it would follow that every man should have a vote in every place where he has taxable property, so that a man owning property or having business interests in half a dozen towns of our county would have a half dozen votes. This system is in vogue in Prussia, where some men have twenty-five or more votes but it would never be popular among us. Furthermore, the estates of children and incompetents, to say nothing of bed-ridden people, are taxed, while their owners do not vote. Taxpayers and voting have nothing to do with each other. The only reason why anybody votes is to prevent the establishment of tyranny and to provide for the orderly transaction of public business. Every system should be judged by its results. Several States have tried woman suffrage, but nobody claims that in any case has it enlarged liberty for either women or men nor has it in any way bettered the administration of affairs. All that it could do in New York would be to increase election expenses. Do the voters of Ulster County desire to saddle themselves with an annual burden of about $40,000 for which they cannot possibly receive any benefit?

The Legislature of 1917 organized the agricultural resources of the state to meet the increased demands of the war, passed a foods and markets bill which enabled the department charged with its administration to come to the assistance of the farmers in procuring and distributing seed and otherwise assisting them, with the result that New York State farmers were aided and encouraged to increase their productive area thirty per cent. The Legislature supplemented this legislation with a food control bill which provided for a more efficient and equitable distribution of farm products and benefited both producers and consumers. The work of this new commission already has attracted the favorable notice of the Federal food control board and the Federal Government is modeling much of its food relief work on lines adopted by the New York state commission. The splendid work done by the Republican administration in this state in putting the state on an effective war footing has been of great assistance to the National administration and furnished many valuable suggestions which Washington has adopted. To keep New York state at the front, keep the administration Republican in all its branches by electing a Republican Attorney General and a Republican Assembly. Vote for Merton E. Lewis and Joel Brink.

This year the voters will elect a man to fill a new office, that of judge of the city court, which takes the place of recorder's court and city court, consolidating the two offices under one head. The office of judge of the city court is an important one and demands that it be filled with a man who is well grounded in the law and who has had practical experience in city court as well as recorder's court work. It was for that reason that the Republican party selected Recorder Andrew J. Lang, whose three years' experience as recorder has proven him to be the right man for the office.

On Christopher Schurrer, who was arrested in New Jersey the other day, was found a card from the German War Office warning him to report for duty with the colors July 17, 1914, six days before Austria's ultimatum to Serbia and twelve days after the Potsdam meeting at which war was secretly decided on. Yet it is still claimed that Germany was reluctantly dragged into the struggle by Russia's mobilization at the end of the same fateful midsummer month.

The German-inspired report that Pope Benedict was "insulted" by President Wilson's broadside against Prussian autocracy in response to the former's peace proposal, completely failed of the desired effect upon the Catholic Church in America, if we are to judge by the utterances of its higher representatives such as Cardinal Gibbons. In accepting the honorary chairmanship of the League for National Unity recently, the Cardinal urged "the unwavering determination of every loyal citizen to stand by the President in his every effort to achieve those ideals of justice and humanity that compelled our entrance into the war." This virile and truly American prelate has since come out in favor of a proposed amendment to the draft law empowering the government to give military training to youths from 19 to 21 years. In response to inquiry Cardinal Gibbons has written that he is in sympathy with the proposal to "provide some military training of young men of 19 and 20," adding: "It will benefit them morally as well as physically, and help to prepare them for their various vocations, or, if necessary, for the stern needs of war." Evidently it would be a waste of time to attempt to stir up pacifism of an injurious sort in the numerically greatest church in America.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, Oct. 29.—The young people of the Epworth League held an autumn social in the lecture room of the M. E. Church Friday evening. With games and refreshments a pleasant evening was enjoyed. Credit is due Miss Jennie McDowell and committee for the success of the social.

The food sale, a benefit for the Red Cross, brought to the treasury nearly $300. The ladies of the town are to be congratulated for the large receipts.

The Boy Scouts were indeed both lucky and plucky. They were on the job and sold over $40,000 worth of Liberty Loan bonds. Ellenville or the town of Waverling went a good bit over $200,000 for Liberty Loan. Patriotism was certainly at its height here. Hearts were truly open to the cause.

Among the boys enlisted or drafted home for a short time are Prof. Herkimer, William Booth, 3rd, one son of Rev. and Mrs. George H. Smith, and Robert Graham, of White Plains recently returned from a trip to France, spent the week end in town and each all received a very cordial welcome from the home relatives and friends.

Mrs. Appley, wife of the pastor, Rev. J. E. Appley, delivered a very able address at the M. E. Church on Sunday morning. The subject was "The Church and Democracy," but she dwelt at length on the part missions play in "the present time in democracy. It was enjoyed by a large congregation attending. The bishop or secretary that was promised to speak at the church in the evening in the interest of the great educational jubilee that is now on in our Episcopal area, did not arrive for the pastor was in charge at the evening service and delivered a good sermon enjoyed by all attending.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hurst of Brooklyn have been spending some days in town, guests at the Mitchell House, while Mr. Hurst looks over his large property on the mountain, which includes Sam's Point, the most noted spot in all the mountain section. Mr. Hurst's many friends are always glad to welcome him and Mrs. Hurst in town.

David Osborn and Mrs. Brundage of Newburgh spent the week end with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones.

Sunday morning and evening at the Lutheran Church was given over to celebrating the 400th anniversary of the Reformation. Very interesting services were held and enjoyed by the large congregations attending.

The local branch of the Red Cross at Napanoch will serve tea at Yama Farms Inn on Wednesday afternoon from four until six. An inspection of the inn and hut is to be given. This is the home of Mrs. O. C. Sawyer whose hospitality is well known and this tea will surely receive a generous patronage.

Society dates at the Ellenville Red Cross rooms are as follows: Monday—Thimble Club; Tuesday—Reformed Church Ladies' Aid; Wednesday—The usual business session; Thursday—W. C. T. U.; Friday—Reformed Home Department; Saturday—Edgemoor Club. The chairmen of the societies are urged to see that as many members as possible are present on the dates assigned them.

William H. Sawyer who owns the well known Red Mill, located at the West End has purchased the Brewster property on Center street and with his wife will occupy it at an early date. Ellenville people are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer who are well and favorably known.

Chester Young has tendered his resignation as one of the trustees of the town board of education.

An interesting letter was received from Chris Sherry, who is somewhere in France by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sherry recently. Christ says France is "Sunny," but Ellenville sunshine would look good. Chris enlisted with the Engineer Corps of New Jersey from East Orange, where he was holding a fine position at his trade, a boss carpenter.

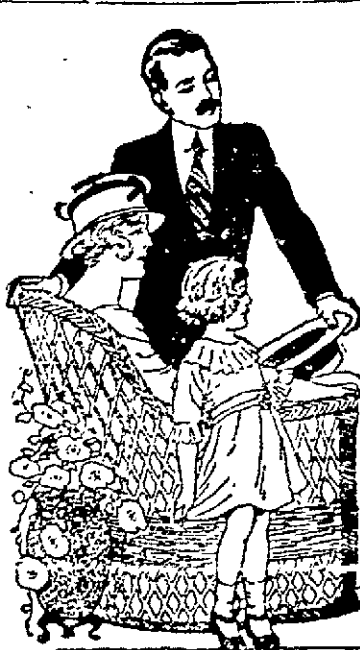

Mrs. Ira Schoonmaker will entertain the Dorcas Society members at her home on Main street Tuesday afternoon. A special meeting to complete arrangements for the supper and sale to be held on Thursday, Nov. 8.

Work is progressing on the Napanoch-Monticla state highway and within a short time there will be a continuous strip of bituminous pavement 7.3 miles long between Dayton flats and the county line. The town superintendent of highways is making efforts to strengthen and make safe the Geiselhart bridge by erecting scaffolding bents underneath in order that the contractor may soon start to put in the top stone and bituminous binder from the Hook Falls bridge back to Dayton flats. If weather conditions continue favorable the contractors hope to lay the foundation course from the Napanoch state road up to the Hook Falls bridge. When the road is completed it will form a great avenue of commerce for the Rondout valley besides opening up a section of the state of great scenic wealth.

ACCORD.

CROSS HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

In spite of the unpleasant weather, Red Cross headquarters on Broadway was filled with members of the chapter who were present for the annual meeting. The meeting, which was presided over by the chairman, Justice G. D. B. Hasbrouck, devoted the evening to the hearing of the annual reports of standing committees, the election of officers for the ensuing year, and the transacting of some new business.

In opening the meeting, Judge Hasbrouck expressed his gratitude to those philanthropic spirits who confronted him, for showing their interest by being present. In the things accomplished in the past year by the Chapter, the speaker felt that the people of the county had reason to be both satisfied and proud; the emergency had been well met. So far the Red Cross had done a great work, but it was not comparable with the magnitude of the work that it would be called upon to do in the future. In order to meet these future needs it will be enough if every individual senses his or her responsibility and does what he or she can in the best way they can for the good of the cause. No work gives such pleasure as the service for others, and because it is such a noble work of service, all that is done for and through the Red Cross is indeed inspiring to the workers. The judge closed his remarks by appealing, in the name of the Chapter, to all to give as freely of their time and aid for the work of the Red Cross as they possibly could.

Mrs. Fessenden, Secretary of the Chapter, then read the minutes of the last annual meeting which she said were particularly interesting because they were so uninteresting. Mrs. Fessenden had no written report of the year's work, as she thought that would be shown in the committee reports. Her brief report was accepted with thanks.

The election of officers was the next order of business and resulted in the re-election of the officers in power, as follows: Chairman, Justice G. D. B. Hasbrouck; first vice-chairman, Frank Powley; second vice-president, Mrs. C. Gordon Reel; secretary, Mrs. W. N. Fessenden; treasurer, Joseph M. Schaeffer. In accepting his re-election, Judge Hasbrouck said he was flattered and wished to express his thanks for the confidence placed in him in again making him chairman of the Ulster County Red Cross.

The treasurer's report as given by Mr. Schaeffer, was as follows:

In moving that Mr. Schaeffer's report be accepted with thanks, Mr. Mahar called attention to the amount of detail now required of the treasurer of the chapter in keeping all of the financial accounts of the organization and asked that the vote of thanks for the report also include an expression of sincere appreciation of the faithfulness and efficiency of the treasurer from the entire chapter. The same was cordially and unanimously given.

Frank Coykendall, chairman of the administrative committee, stated that the chapter had sent out 83 cases of surgical dressings and hospital garments, and he had learned that the same had been forwarded without repacking or special inspection which was in and of itself a gratifying acknowledgment of the excellent character of the work done by the chapter.

Miss Jessie Oughelton, chairman of the hospital garments committee for the city, reported 3,000 hospital garments completed in the city since the 1st of February last. Mr. Frederick Stinson, chairman of the hospital garments and surgical dressings work in the county, exclusive of the city reported, since August 1st, 20,270 surgical dressings, 6,190 hospital garments and 264 knitted articles completed by the county auxiliaries all of the work being admirably done.

Mrs. C. Gordon Reel, chairman of the membership committee reported 16 auxiliaries now organized in the county and the total membership of the chapter to be 4,086 members. When Mrs. Reel took the chairmanship of this committee, the membership numbered but a few over 100 members.

Mrs. C. E. Hasbrouck, chairman of the supplies committee reported as follows from May to November, inclusive, the period during which she had been officially chairman of the committee:

Supplies purchased—tape, 6,000 yards; unbleached muslin, 7,000 yards; outing flannel, 4,000 yards; heavy gray flannel, 3,654 yards; gauze, 13,000 yards; cotton flannel, 2,164 2-3 yards; safety pins, 380 gross; waterproof paper, 500 yards; belting, 1,050 yards; buckles, 1,000 buttons, 50 gross; wool, 750 pounds; medicated cotton, 26 boxes; cotton batting, 2 boxes (50 pounds).

Supplies given out—Tape, 2,000 yards; unbleached muslin, 2,000 yards; outing flannel, 400 yards; heavy gray flannel, 3,000 yards; gauze, 7,000 yards; cotton flannel, 500 yards; safety pins, 5 gross; waterproof paper, 200 yards; belting, 250 yards; buckles, 1 gross; buttons, 9 gross; wool, 730 pounds; medicated cotton, 3 boxes; cotton batting, 1 box (25 pounds).

Sundries—Office supplies; chairs; tables, baskets, mops, dust pan and broom, hangers, electric iron, 4 sets and supports, bedding and nets; special hospital equipments for 4 Hospital Units the made garments being taken from completed work.

Mrs. Philip Elting, chairman of the chapter house workers reported that the D. A. R. felt very thankful that they had the chapter house which they could offer for the Red Cross work being done there. She said that during the spring, summer and fall, thousands of surgical dressings had been made there but that the need for such work increased continually. Many more women could do daily work at the house, and Mrs. Elting begged every woman present to give at least a little of her time to helping in this particular line of endeavor. All of the foregoing reports were accepted with thanks and ordered placed on file.

Mrs. Reed, chairman of the Press Committee gave the following report:

The press committee of the Ulster County Chapter of the American Red Cross makes the following report for the past year: All three of the daily papers of the city, together with their weekly and semi-weekly editions, made note of the Red Cross meetings, work, etc., occasionally previous to the severance of friendly relations of this country with Germany. Since that time, and especially since our being at war with Germany, these papers have given in many instances daily Red Cross news, both regarding chapter activities and the national Red Cross work, with all of the papers have given frequent news of this auxiliary of the war department. All of the papers know that daily local news may be obtained by calling on Red Cross headquarters in this city. This local news includes reports of our county auxiliaries which are so effectively active. During the Red Cross war relief fund campaign, the local press not only published all news of import to the movement, but gave generously of advertising space and in some cases took the initiative in putting forth the needs of the campaign in specially prepared and featured articles. All of the papers treated this great movement editorially.

Where Red Cross entertainments or mass meetings have been held the papers have given generously of reading space for the advertising of such affairs.

Acknowledgements received from those who have had articles of any sort from the chapter have also been fully published.

The chair ruled that if there were no objections the report would be accepted and placed on file.

In the absence of Mrs. Ellis, chairman of the down town women workers, the Rev. Mr. Ellis reported that each week some thirty-five or forty women met for an afternoon of work in the lecture room of the Roundout Presbyterian Church, accomplishing much efficient work and giving a small contribution each week toward the purchase of supplies or other needs of the chapter.

Mrs. Chandler, chairman of the civilian relief committee, announced that while her committee was organized and ready for work, there had been no special occasion for the exerting of their activities, inasmuch as the men in Company M and in the drafts had been chosen first because they had no dependents. However, two appeals had come to the committee for aid, and the same had been investigated and proved to have no claim whatever upon the committee. Acting upon instructions previously received from the executive committee, Mrs. Chandler said she had asked the proper committee of the Home Defense Committee for the refund of the money given over by the civilian relief Red Cross committee to this organization and which it was understood had not been used. She was informed by the committee inquired of that should the need arise, she could draw upon them for the amount turned over to the Civilian Relief Committee.

Miss Smith reported for the knitted committee. Mrs. C. D. B. Hasbrouck, chairman, reported 1,350 garments had already been knitted, but that our allotment was 6,000 garments. Judge Hasbrouck further announced for Mrs. Hasbrouck that an imperative call had come for sweaters and helmets particularly urged the women knitting to at once address themselves to knitting these garments.

Mrs. T. J. Hickey, chairman of the circles of workers at St. Mary's and St. Joseph's, gave the following report of articles made by these circles as follows: St. Joseph's Circle and Daughters of Isabella, wash cloths, 13; oakum pads, 55; hot water bag covers, 15; large mop made of waste material; cut material for 200 pads; "T" bandages, 50. St. Mary's Circle, linen tray covers, 42; pairs bed socks, 19; "T" bandages, 109; handkerchiefs, 3; wash cloths, 24; These reports were all accepted with thanks and ordered placed on file. Owing to some misunderstanding there was no report given of the work done at the chapter house, and that report will appear in a later issue of the Freeman. No report was given by the military relief, containers, publicity, canteen, automobile of hospital committee. Mrs. Fessenden reported for Miss Edna Smith, chairman of the first aid committee, that 140 persons had taken the first aid courses. Many members present felt it a matter of regret that the activities of the chapter, including the handling of some thousand glasses of jelly, and other special incidents could not have been noted, as they were all a part of the chapter's year of work, much of which has gratuitously and most efficiently accomplished by Miss Ruth Smith, whose duties as clerk are manifold and exacting.

Following the reports, Judge Hasbrouck called upon Admiral Higginson for a few words, and the admiral not only congratulated the chapter upon what it had already accomplished but urged it to further efforts and bespoke special consideration for the men to man the submarine chasers and for the men of the navy.

The chairman then spoke of the recent concert given by Miss Los Kamp and other New York artists, under Miss Los Kamp's direction, which not only was a most generous act upon their part, but resulted in so fine a sum for the chapter. The secretary was instructed by the chapter to send a letter of sincere thanks and appreciation to Miss Los Kamp and each of the artists for their services in giving the concert.

During the few moments devoted to business it was voted that the chapter should give $10 from the old Christmas Seal fund toward the purchase of Red Cross Christmas Seals this coming season.

Mr. Coykendall called attention to the matter of the Christmas packages to be prepared by the chapter and its friends, and stated that the allotment for the chapter was 1,000 packages. These should be prepared just as soon as possible. Miss Sarah Horton has this matter in charge.

The subject of a regular and systematic collection of waste from factories and stores, hotels, clubs, etc., for the benefit of the Red Cross, as suggested by Mr. Canfield, of the Chamber of Commerce, was brought up and referred to the administrative committee with power.

It was also noted that at the coming complimentary Edison phonograph concert, announcement had been made that if the chapter chose to avail itself of the opportunity, the concert could be given for its benefit, and a silver collection be taken. In order to take more carefully and adequately take care of this and similar events, it was voted that the chair should appoint an entertainment committee of five persons to have all such affairs in charge.

Mr. Mahar, chairman of the finance committee, asked that all organizations in the city which had in any way contributed to the funds of the Red Cross in response to the appeals from that committee, be publicly thanked.

The meeting then adjourned.

CLINTON PORTRAIT IN COURT HOUSE

Presented by Irving Von Beck to Ulster County Bar And Placed at Head of Staircase.

There has been placed at the head of the staircase in the county court house in this city, a life size portrait of DeWitt Clinton, painted by John Vanderlyn, the great American artist, who was born and died in Kingston. Originally it was the property of Major George F. Von Beck, and for many years ornamented the walls of the Mansion House. It was presented to the Ulster County Bar by Irving Von Beck in the following letter to Judge Clearwater:

"My Dear Judge Clearwater:—As you long have known, I inherited and own the portrait of DeWitt Clinton, which for many years has ornamented the walls of the Mansion House. Having sold the house, it occurred to me after consultation with you, that as Governor Clinton was a graduate of Kingston Academy, a distinguished lawyer, a United States senator from this state, and twice governor of the state, that I would like to present his portrait to the Ulster County Bar, with the view that it might be placed in the court house where it seems properly to belong, and after my consultation with you regarding the matter, I beg to say that I hereby present the portrait to the bar of Ulster county, and you may have it removed at your convenience.

With many kind regards, I am as ever,
Very sincerely yours,
IRVING VON BECK."

In thanking Mr. Von Beck for his generous gift to the members of the Ulster bar, the judge expressed his deep appreciation of the spirit which had led Mr. Von Beck to present to this generation of Ulster county lawyers the portrait of one of the most distinguished of their predecessors. Several times during Major Von Beck's ownership of the portrait efforts were made by the state to induce him to add it to the collection in the state capitol at Albany, but this he always declined to do.

The Mansion House having been sold, Judge Clearwater requested Sheriff Shultis carefully to remove the portrait, and to place it in its present position at the head of the staircase. It is placed there because the old court house is almost daily visited by out of town visitors, and as the court room is closed when court is in session, it was thought better to place the portrait where it always can be seen. The governor is represented as holding in his hand the act to incorporate the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company. The painting forms an invaluable addition to the portraits of the judges of the supreme court and of the county which adorn the walls of the supreme court chambers and of the chambers of the county court. Some day Ulster county should own oil portraits of all these officials.

DeWitt Clinton was born in what was then Ulster county, now known as Little Britain, Orange county, on the 2nd of March, 1769. He was educated at the Kingston Academy, and at Columbia College, was admitted to the bar in 1788, and practiced in this county. He entered the legislature in 1797, and the state senate in 1798. He became United States senator in 1801, resigned in 1803 to become the mayor of the city of New York, a position which he held until 1807, and resumed in 1811, remaining there until 1815. He was lieutenant governor from 1811 to 1813, and an unsuccessful candidate for the presidency in 1812. He adopted early and supported ably and efficiently the policy of the construction of the Lake Erie, Lake Champlain and Delaware and Hudson canals and demonstrated to the citizens of New York the benefits which would result to the whole country not only in regard to commerce, wealth and population, but the stability of the union by their construction. He was elected governor of New York in 1817, and re-elected in 1820. He declined re-nomination in 1822, but was again elected in 1824, and a third time in 1826, dying while holding that office.

One of those pleasant little affairs that we grow-ups like to see is a child's birthday party. Little Miss Irene Snyder, 8 years old on October 27, celebrated the momentous occasion with each a birthday party. The weather was most propitious and the little hostess with her guests could play all sorts of games out of doors to their heart's content. Every minute of the time was utilized. A birthday cake and ice cream with numerous auxiliary dishes made a most tempting ending to an afternoon of pleasure. Miss Irene had as guests Edna Arnet, Walter Arnet, Hilda Lockwood, Mina Malcolm, Sarah Reosa and Walter Stauble. These little people with her sister and herself made up the number eight which tells her age and gives an indication of the many such days that may follow in the years to come.

We Want to Talk Heating With You

But mind you, we are not going to ask you to buy a single thing. All we want is just the chance to tell you what little we know about the strong points about this Kingstonian Boiler we are selling.

After we have told them to you—if that boiler doesn't sell itself to you, all we could ever say between now and next Election wouldn't move you an inch.

But just bear this in mind; no matter what "system" you install, the boiler is the vital thing.

If you want to come around and talk it over this evening, we'll stay down.

Keeping Down Taxes and Rents

POCKET-BOOK PARAGRAPHS

Do you pay taxes—or rent? Either way Suffrage means a fatter pocketbook. Look at California. No state tax there at all. Look at five other Suffrage states—rates between $1.20 and $3.34 per $1,000!

Only four go as high as $5.00 or over.

Where only men vote, half the states have rates of $5.00 or over. Ten of them go as high as in the teens, twenties and thirties.

Take Kansas, for instance. It's the only state which, once having had a bonded indebtedness, has ever paid it off. The last dollar was cleared away in 1916—four years after Kansas women were granted full suffrage.

Still, Kansas had the benefit of partial Woman Suffrage for a long time before that—school suffrage since 1861, municipal suffrage since 1887 and full suffrage since 1912. Good for Kansas!

Or think about election expenses. Twice as many voters sounds like twice as much money, doesn't it? Wait a minute.

Election expenses are a mighty small item anyway—much less than one per cent of the total taxes. The big items are for things like roads, schools, prisons.

But even this small item doesn't bother suffrage states.

There's Denver. Lowest per capita voting cost of any large city—14c. Or Cheyenne in Wyoming, where women have voted since 1869—twenty-eight years before they received full suffrage in any other state.

Cheyenne's per capita cost of voting is 10c—less than any city of its size in the country. Wild and woolly, perhaps, but very, very thrifty!

And New York? In New York the cost of water is $1.60. In Chicago, 57c. So in Chicago a man and his wife can both vote for 46c less than a New York man alone!

Don't forget Colorado. Bigger prosperity there than ever in the past 23 years while women have been voting. Gone from poverty to great wealth.

Colorado public institutions worth $254,000,000. Small bonded debt; tax rate notably low.

Denver's so careful about spending that it takes in more than it pays out. One of only seven cities with this excess of revenues over expenditures, according to the Federal Bureau of the Census.

Think these facts over. Remember suffrage isn't the experiment that many people would like to have you think.

It works!

Public finances affect private pocket-books. A state soundly financed is a good place to live—a good place to save. Suffrage states are prosperous states.

This year, in our national food crisis, women have had a new opportunity to show how forethought, good judgment and common sense can prevent waste.

How many men could keep the bills down the way their wives do?

Women in Suffrage states suggest or approve measures that keep the state's bills down too.

Two heads are better than one. Cast your ballots together next year—you and your wife. You can do it if you cast the right ballot next Tuesday.

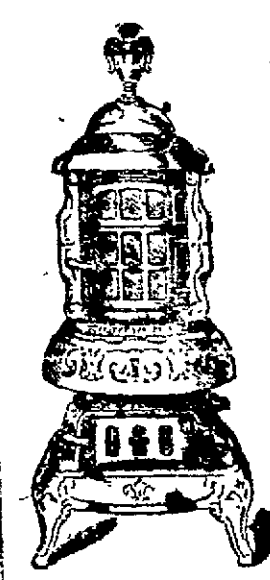

Figure it out for yourself. With living costs on a war-time basis, can you afford not to vote for Woman Suffrage?

Boy Scouts Play No Small Part in Securing Kingston's Quota of the Second Liberty Loan.

The Boy Scout organization in Kingston has proved its usefulness to the community and to the nation by the wonderful work done by the 58 scouts who acted as special messengers of the President of the United States in selling Liberty Bonds.

The final report is ready to be sent to scout headquarters at New York where Kingston's record will be looked upon with no small regard. Of the 58 scouts who sold 698 bonds making a total of $62,400 there will be 35 to receive the special War Service Emblem bearing the seal of the United States Treasury Department and of the Boy Scouts of America.

The record for salesmanship is held by Scout John DeWitt of troop No. 5 who sold 77 bonds amounting to $5,700.

The troop record is as follows:
Troop No. 5, 254 bonds $20,750
Troop No. 4, 167 bonds $17,750
Troop No. 6, 133 bonds $12,650

These figures should arouse every citizen in Kingston to a realization of the possibilities in a group of boys organized and supervised as they are under the principles of scouting. They have realized it in other places and the scouts have not been handicapped by a lack of interest on the part of the community. If the President of the United States and the government officials think enough of the scouts to call upon them for aid in a national crisis surely the people of Kingston should see the opportunity to provide citizens of tomorrow. There is no limit to the things which the scouts will do for Kingston if the citizens will come to the front and support the organization.

The work which was put through last week was greatly handicapped by the size and location of the present scout headquarters. The central office should be in the center of town where all troops will be able to report. It is the responsibility of the citizens of this community to give their financial support to this organization which trains boys in principles of citizenship and makes a city safer to live in.

UNITED STATES IS AIDING ITALY

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Oct. 29.—The United States has gone to the assistance of Italy in that country's extremity. The details of the assistance or even the nature of it were refused by the Italian embassy today but the fact that America would play a most potent part in rolling back the Teuton invasion was not denied. Accordingly there was an atmosphere of optimism at the embassy that could not be mistaken and this was heightened by the news from Rome that a definite means of checking the Germans was about to be put into operation.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Monday Club.

The Monday Club members were the guests of Mrs. John Forsyth at her home on Albany avenue this week. Mrs. Forsyth had the paper for the day, in which she gave an interesting account of the life and most notable works of Edmund Ross. The club has enrolled one new member, Mrs. Richard Tappan, who was present at the meeting. Next week the club will meet with Mrs. Joseph M. Fowler.

D. A. R. Meeting.

The November meeting of the D. A. R. will be held at the chapter house on Thursday afternoon of this week at 3 o'clock. The local board will meet at 2 o'clock. The program for the afternoon will be in charge of Mrs. William Lawton and Mrs. W. M. Davis, who will also act as hostesses. The speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. Edith Elling Paton, who has spent many years of her life in France, and who speak on "French Women in the War."

The Sheriff's Birthday.

Sheriff Shults had some business in the county Sunday afternoon and after finishing this business he was much surprised when he returned to his home at 26 South Pine street to find a number of relatives and members of his family gathered in the parlor. However, the sheriff was soon reminded of the fact that it was his birthday. Mrs. Shults proved equal to the occasion and before the guests left they were treated to a very tempting and substantial dinner. Sheriff Shults did not state just how many milestones he has passed. The Freeman, with the host of the sheriff's friends, unite in wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Pleasant Birthday Surprise.

A birthday surprise party was tendered to Miss Nellie Lynch of New York city at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ellen Lynch, on Wilbur avenue, by nine young couples Saturday evening. The evening was enjoyed by everyone present in games, dancing and refreshments were served. The guests departed at a late hour, voting Miss Lynch a royal entertainer and wishing her many more happy birthdays. Among those present were the Misses Kelly Murphy, Mae Scully, Anna Lynch, Nora Murphy, Ruth Sears, Elizabeth Coffey, Nellie Lynch, Miss Pleshang, Estelle McGrath, the Messrs. Thomas Murphy, John Scully, Arthur Lynch, Harry Healey, Robert Lynch, James Kenney, Edward A. Ford, James Flannery of this city, and Harry Maxwell of Brooklyn.

Sokolashenko Club.

The Sokolashenko Club met with Mrs. Hull on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Godfrey had the first paper for the afternoon, in which she made the members well acquainted with "Collected Actors of Shakespearean Characters." She showed that according to stage history the English were more experimental than the Americans. The actors whom she presented were Sir Henry Tree, who had appeared in 17 different Shakespearean plays; E. H. Southam, John Drew, Forbes Robertson, Julia Marlowe, Margaret Anglin and Maude Adams. The second paper for the afternoon was upon the topic "Alaskan Boundary Question," and was ably given by Mrs. V. B. Van Wageningen, who told of the various disputes between Canada and the United States relative to this matter. The first dispute arose in 1799 and the matter was not finally adjusted until 1906, when it was brought to a final issue by the Alaskan Boundary Tribunal. Today this boundary is marked at four mile intervals by bronze and aluminum markers. Next week the club will hold an informal meeting at the home of Mrs. Grover Lasher on Lucas avenue.

Cole Non-Support Case.

This morning Percy Cole of Catskill was arraigned before Recorder Lane on a charge of non-support preferred by his wife who resides at No. 1 West O'Reilly street. She was represented by Judge N. Frank O'Reilly, while Andrew J. Cook appeared in behalf of her husband. The testimony showed that her husband was employed by the telephone company earning $28 a week. He had been contributing $15 a week toward the support of his wife and lately had only been giving her $5. This she claimed was not sufficient. At the close of the case Recorder Lane ordered her husband to pay her $8.50 a week.

Anderson is Arrested.

Charles Anderson, colored, was arrested Monday by night jailer Every on a charge of violating the excise law. The arrest was made on a bench warrant handed down by the grand jury.

WHY THE Y. M. C. A. IS RAISING FUNDS

The representative of the National War Council of the Young Men's Christian Association of the United States, H. L. Simmons, of New York, is here to confer with our Kingston and Ulster county citizens of large affairs, who are accustomed to handling big propositions on the $35,000,000 War Fund that is to be raised in a nation-wide campaign during the week of November 11 to 15 and to be used during the coming year in serving the men of the armies and navies of the United States and certain of her Allies such as Russia, France and Italy, as well as the prisoners of war throughout the war zones. Mr. Simmons says that the citizens here at everywhere also recognize the spirit of highest patriotism and soundest military strategy and business judgment in this movement and that they approve heartily of the reasons which led to the idea of large vision and of proved wisdom and capacity to decide that this sum be secured at this time and that they are responding promptly to the call to do all in their power to insure the success of the undertaking. Self-sacrificing, giving, constant talking it up and earnest work to enlist the cooperation of others, will be required from all.

This is big business for big men. William Sloane, Cleveland H. Dodge, John R. Mott, Cyrus H. McCormick, George W. Perkins and other men of their size in New York and elsewhere are used to setting up big things and in this movement they are calling to their help the biggest men of the nation. Strong campaign committees representing the entire community are being appointed in every county in the United States. This committee for Kingston and Ulster county has been about decided upon and the appointments from the National Council should be here and ready to be published in a day or two. Mr. Simmons says that the way the patriotic business men are responding to this call to service all over the country is nothing short of phenomenal. No one scarcely seems to decline. They have all helped the government by boosting Liberty Bonds and now turn to helping the American soldiers and sailors and Allies just as enthusiastically.

$35,000,000 is needed because of the vast number of men to be served and there could be no more economical or important use of funds. It is only an expenditure of $1.50 per man which is very little indeed when we consider the dangers and possibilities of the lives of these men. The character of the service they are rendering, the supreme sacrifice every man of them stands ready to make "the burning question," says John R. Mott, secretary of the National Council, "which this fund must help answer is, Shall the flower of our American manhood, who go out to represent us, come back to us (so far as their lives are spared) with bodies shot through, with unnamable disease and with character weakened or blasted or shall they return stronger and better men? What more important asset have we to conserve."

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

George E. Martin died at his home, corner Washington avenue and Post street, Saugerties, Sunday night, after a brief illness, aged 47 years and 11 days. He was a son of the late George W. Martin of Kingston and is survived by his wife and one son, Everett, of Saugerties, and two sisters, Mrs. John D. W. Sahler of Kingston and Mrs. E. H. Smith of Haddonfield, N. J.

The funeral of George M. Zellmer, which was held on Monday morning from his late residence, on Spring street at nine o'clock, and from St. Peter's church at 9:30 was largely attended by many friends of the family including a large number of relatives from New York city, Albany, New Jersey and Poughkeepsie. The Rev. J. P. Neumann, who was the celebrant at the mass of requiem which was offered up for the repose of the soul of the departed one, also delivered the eulogy, and spoke very fittingly of the life work of Mr. Zellmer. Upon the conclusion of the mass, Herman LaTour sang a solo entitled "Beautiful Land on High" and the choir rendered the anthem, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" at the end of the service. The floral offerings were numerous and handsome, especially so the large floral piece sent by the employees of The Kingston Freeman, where the deceased was employed for many years. The bearers were Jacob Lay, Jacob Reinkenwald, William J. Gerhinger, Henry Munch, Gustav Teichert and Frank Stenzel. The remains which rested in a quartered oak casket were laid to rest in St. Peter's cemetery, the funeral cortege being accompanied by the cemetery by the Rev. J. P. Neumann.

The progress of the contracts are dependent upon shipments of cement, sandstone and gravel, and with the supply of cars for transporting these materials cut off, work will have to be discontinued.

FRENCH WIN BACK GERMAN GAINS

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Paris, Oct. 30.—The German gains over a 500-yard front around Courrieres Wood yesterday were completely won back today by the French according to the official statement issued this afternoon.

The statement also said that actual German attacks were repulsed. Active artillery fighting was reported on the Chaumo Wood and Bezonvaux sectors.

TIDE HELD UP FERRY TRAFFIC

It was a fortunate thing for automobilists that they decided not to travel today for this afternoon it was impossible for the ferry Transport to carry vehicles across the river owing to the high tide caused by the wind and heavy rain storms. The high tide made it impossible for vehicles to get on or off the ferry as the bridge could not be raised sufficiently high to be used. Foot passengers, however, had no difficulty in getting on and off the ferry.

AUTOMOBILE NOTES.

Undertaker Leo V. Grogan of 37 Clinton avenue has purchased a handsome six cylinder Mitchell touring car.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Thompson of Pine Hill have purchased a 1918 Chevrolet car through Forsyth & Davis Motor Car Company of this city.

Severe Storm in New York.

ITALIANS CHECK GERMAN ADVANCE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Rome, Oct. 29.—General Cadorna's forces continued today to check the continued onslaughts of the enemy according to despatches received here from the battle front. These despatches emphasized the previous statement that the Italian operations are proceeding as previously planned.

The general belief in military circles here is that General Cadorna is slowly but successfully massing his strength toward the Tagliamento river with the evident plan to make his stand behind his splendid fortifications along the river.

"The destruction of the bridges across the Isonzo, together with the successful action of the Italian covering units, has held up the Austro-German advance," the war office announced today.

The statements adds that "the Italian cavalry is in contact with the enemy's vanguard."

GERMANS HAVE TAKEN UDINE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Berlin, Oct. 30.—Udine, the great Italian base, was captured today by the Germans, according to official announcements here this afternoon.

According to earlier advices from Rome, it now seems probable that General Cadorna offered very little if any resistance to the German attack on Udine. Rome officials have been of the opinion for several days that General Cadorna has had in mind a concerted resistance along the banks of the Tagliamento river. For this reason, it is believed that General Cadorna offered only such resistance as would cover his retreating forces.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Everybody knows that other people make mistakes.

Toasts are often drunk, yet they are never intoxicated.

Watches and rivers do not run long without winding.

Human nature sets a man up as a judge of his neighbors.

A woman laughs most heartily at a story of which she fails to see the point.

The snow man quickly melts, but it's different with the heart.

Of the ice man.

To be optimistic is easy when only the good things of life are coming your way.

The man who plays poker for pastime usually passes more or less coin over to the other fellow.

A married man should come home early at least one night each week—just to show his wife that he can do it.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

Save suds for gardens and plants. Count your clothespins, spoons, knives, forks, towels, handkerchiefs every week.

Save pieces of bread for puddings; dry them well and they will never turn moldy.

Keep tapes, threads and pieces of various fabrics in separate bags, and so save the time in looking for them.

A bit of soap rubbed on the hinges of a door will prevent squeaking.

If milk is used in mixing mustard instead of water it will keep fresh for several days.

To soften fruit jar rubbers, put ammonia in warm water and let them stand in it for ten or twenty minutes.

To remove grease from silk, rub a lump of wet magnesia over the spot, allow it to dry and then brush off the powder.

Don't depend upon extra heat when you want water to boil quickly, but add a little salt to the water and watch the gratifying results.

Never put salt into soup when cooking until it is skimmed, as salt prevents the skum from rising.

Sprinkle the clothes with hot water. They will iron more easily and have a smoother finish.

Clever Clerk.

Some of the cash grocery stores are not over eager to make deliveries. They figure that the customer can afford to carry her purchase home herself, as long as she makes a saving, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Several of the stores have abolished deliveries altogether; others merely discourage them. It was at one of these latter that a clerk rather overstepped himself the other day.

"I want five pounds of potatoes," said the customer.

"Yes, ma'am. You'll take them with you?"

"Why, yes, if you think it won't make too heavy a package."

"Oh, no, ma'am. It won't discommode you in the least. It will be well wrapped and weigh only three or four pounds."

To Join Metal and Marble.

A cement for making metal and marble adhere consists of 30 parts of plaster of paris, 10 parts iron filings and half a part of sal ammoniac and acetic acid added to make a thin paste, which must be used immediately.

BEFORE THE WAR

By DOROTHY DOUGLAS.

Arline had broken their engagement because David had given up a splendid position to join the army. He had given no reason for his desire to become a soldier save that he had a "hunch." At least that had been David's way of putting

In Appreciation.

I hereby take this method of expressing to my many friends and neighbors, my sincere thanks for their many acts of kindness shown during the illness, and at the time of the death of my husband, also for their many expressions of sympathy and the beautiful floral tokens given. Especially appreciated was the remembrance from the employees of The Freeman. I also wish to thank H. T. LaTour and the members of the choir of St. Peter's Church for their kindness in rendering the selections at the time of the funeral. MRS. GEORGE M. ZELMER, AND FAMILY.—Advertisement.

EFFECTIVE MOTH TRAP

New Device to Be Used in Place of "Banding" Method.

Attractive Place Afforded for Larvae to Spin Cocoons, and Prevents Escape of Insects—Wire Screen Is Used.

A codling moth trap has been devised by E. H. Slegter of the bureau of entomology, United States department of agriculture, to be used as a substitute for what is known as the "banding" method for destroying the codling moth. The banding method, in which a folded strip of burlap is wrapped around the tree trunk, demands a considerable amount of labor, and the new trap is designed to minimize this. The trap affords an attractive place for the larvae to spin their cocoons, and it prevents the escape of the moths after they emerge from these. The trap, which consists of a burlap band covered by a strip of wire screen, is made as follows:

Strips of burlap six inches wide are folded into three thicknesses. The loose bark from the lower branches and trunk of the tree is removed and a strip of this burlap folded once around the trunk. It is held in place by large tacks, which should be driven in in such a way that the edge projects about one-fourth of an inch beyond the burlap. The burlap is then covered by black-painted wire screen with 12 meshes to the inch. This is cut into strips six inches wide and the edges of each strip are folded twice, allowing one-fourth of an inch to each fold. The strip of screen should be long enough to allow for an overlap of three to four inches when placed around the trunk of the tree. The wire screen is placed over the burlap band and tacked to the tree in such a way that both the upper and lower edges fit snugly against the bark. The projecting tacks used to fasten the burlap to the tree prevent the wire pressing against the cloth. To make sure that no moths may escape through openings along the edges of the trap or along the flap, a thin coating of pitch tar may be used. This material, when heated, may be applied readily with a brush.

It must be clearly understood that this trap is not a substitute for spraying, but merely an additional precaution. Nevertheless, some larvae will invariably escape, and the offspring of these are largely responsible for the damage to the fruit crop. By the use of the codling moth trap, in addition to thorough spraying, the majority of the unpolluted larvae may be captured and injury by later broods will be materially reduced.

SKIM MILK IN FEED RATION

Not Valuable as Fat Producer When Fed Alone on Account of Lack of Starch and Sugar.

(By JOHN C. BURNS.)

Skim milk, on the basis of its composition, is of the class known as protein feeds. Being too deficient in starches and sugars (carbohydrates) as well as fat, it is not very valuable as a fat producer when fed alone. When combined with corn or some similar feed in the proper proportions the protein of the skim milk supplies the deficiency of the protein in the corn, while the carbohydrates of the corn supply that deficiency in the skim milk, the two feed stuffs thus forming a balanced ration. This means a ration which contains the nutrients in proportions to meet the needs of the animal body for its best development.

HOLDING MOISTURE IN SOIL

One of Chief Points in Well-Pulverized Soil, Without Which Soil Is Only Ordinary.

One of the chief points of value in a well-pulverized soil is its moisture-holding capacity. It is to hold water that we introduce organic matter as well as to feed the plants, for humus holds soil moisture best, but pulverization alone is highly effective.

BROILER DUCKS FOR MARKET

Few Are Easy to Raise and Develop Fast—Value of Feathers Is Quite an Item.

Ducks are easy to raise and develop fast and soon are ready for the market. There is a good profit derived selling them for broilers, but if kept until five or six months old before selling their value for their feathers cuts quite an item.

Home-Made Gas.

Take some hard coal and grind it up fine. Put it in the bowl of a clay pipe and put some plaster of paris over the top to seal it. Then put the bowl of the pipe over the flame of the gas stove. In a few moments the gas will be coming out of the stem of the pipe and the same can be lighted.

St. John's Church Notes.

On Sunday a new movement was instituted at St. John's Church which promises far more for the future than might appear on the surface. At the close of the Sunday school session, the pupils of the school marched into the gallery of the church, some few sitting with their parents, where they chose to do so. The children remained during the opening service of the church, taking part therein. Following the morning lessons, the rector, the Rev. J. I. Blair Larned, gave a five minute talk to the children that held the attention of their elders as closely as it did the young people. The children are studying the "Whole Armour of God," and Sunday the subject was "The Breastplate of righteousness." The protection of right doing was shown to be a vital and most efficient part of any Christian's armor. Hereafter the Sunday school will open at 10 o'clock in order that there may be no considerable wait between the Sunday school and the church service.

Wednesday afternoon the ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary will hold a Halloween tea, food sale and social at the parish house from 3 to 6 o'clock, for the purpose of raising funds to make complete the missionary appointment which it is desirable should be paid by November 1. Tickets for the tea are only 15 cents, and will entitle one to a cup of tea and cake. All persons contributing food are asked to leave the same at the parish house any time after 10 o'clock Wednesday. In the evening the young people of the church will hold an informal Halloween dance for the same cause in addition to spending a pleasant evening where all will get together after the vacation season. Twenty-five cents will admit one couple and fifteen cents one person. A delightful evening, with good music and with light refreshments that will be sold for a nominal cost is promised all.

Perhaps as never before in the memory of the oldest member of our churches today, the service to be held on All Saints' Day will appeal this year. Whether or not one has been accustomed to attend this service in years past, they will want to do so this year, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the service at St. John's Church on Thursday evening of this week, wherein all of the Episcopal Churches of the city will unite. The preacher will be the Rev. Father Lamer of Holy Cross Church.

At the morning service held at St. John's Church, the rector announced that the troop of Boy Scouts, made up almost entirely of the boys of the church, had sold for this second Liberty Loan, some $20,700 worth of bonds, the total amount of the bond sales of the city made by all the Boy Scouts being in the neighborhood of $50,000. Nine or ten of the St. John's boys will be entitled to the special tribute paid to their service work of the government. While the Boy Scouts have been busy with the Liberty Loan, the Girl Scouts have been busy in the interest of the food conservation movement, and are meeting with splendid success.

ANOTHER CITIZEN AIDS SYMPHONY

Judge Severn B. Sharpe is another prominent citizen of Kingston who feels keenly the need of supporting and encouraging the Kingston Symphony Society and who welcomes the opportunity of assisting in clearing away the indebtedness that at this time handicaps the society. It is to clear away and cancel this indebtedness that the benefit concert arranged for next Monday night at the high school auditorium has been planned by friends of the society and lovers of music.

Judge Sharpe, who had received an invitation to serve as a patron of the concert, not only accepts the invitation, but expresses his entire approval of the project and enclosed a check for the purposes for which the concert is intended.

The letter of Judge Sharpe to Emanuel Metzger, chairman of the benefit concert committee, is as follows:

E. Metzger, Esq.,

Chairman.

My Dear Mr. Metzger:—

It gives me pleasure to accept the invitation to become a contributing patron of the benefit concert for the Kingston Symphony Society.

The members of that society are deserving of generous support, both in recognition of their work in the past and as an encouragement for their continued efforts in musical education.

Very truly yours,

SEVERN B. SHARPE.

The KITCHEN CABINET

If there is any one point which in six thousand years of thinking about right or wrong, wise and good men have agreed upon, or successively by experience discovered, it is that God dislikes idle and cruel people more than any others.—Ruskin.

PALATABLE COLD THINGS.

These are always favorites at all times under most circumstances and conditions.

Oatmeal Beverage.—This is a drink which is especially cooling, and a great favorite on the farm. Take a quart of a pound of oatmeal, one cupful of sugar and the strained juice of two lemons. Add a half cupful of boiling water to the oatmeal, mix the other ingredients and pour into a gallon of boiling water, stir well, put through a sieve and add before serving.

Apple Water.—Core, pare and cut four apples in small pieces, then put them into a pitcher, adding the lemon rind from a small lemon, a quarter of a cupful of sugar and four cupfuls of water, boiling hot; cover the pitcher and let it stand aside to cool.

A tablespoonful of ginger mixed with three of sugar stirred into a pint of cold water makes a fine drink.

Boston Cream.—Take three quarts of boiling water, one and a half pounds of sugar, two teaspoonfuls of lemon extract, two ounces of tartaric acid and the whites of two eggs. Boil the water and allow it to get cold, then stir in the other ingredients, beating the whites until stiff. Mix well and pour into bottles and keep in the ice chest. When serving, put a pinch of soda in a glass and half fill the tumbler with ice, pour in enough of the cream to fill the glass and drink immediately.

Chocolate Syrup.—Take three squares of chocolate, one ounce of cocoa, one and a half pounds of sugar and a pint of water, one and a half teaspoonfuls of vanilla. Boil the cocoa in a double boiler ten minutes with a half-cupful of water; grate the chocolate and mix it with one-third of its measure in sugar; add this to the boiling cocoa, stirring constantly, then add the remainder of the sugar and boil for ten minutes. Remove from the fire, strain, cool and add the vanilla. This will keep in the icechest until it is used. A tablespoonful of the syrup added to cold milk or ice water topped with a marshmallow or whipped cream makes a most inviting drink.
